Smart Phone Access Application

Advantages include:
Instant access management, push updates, increased security response

Security Team

Smart phone is used as access point to open doors at a secure facility. Requires fingerprint to access application on the phone. Daily access info, security protocols are sent and received with the TWX platform.

Software Team

Receives alerts when access is denied and follows up on physical threats

Creates mashups and manages employee access protocols.

Platform is used for the creation, monitoring, collection and troubleshooting of data.